PRESS RELEASE

KME CLOSED THE ACQUISITION OF ZUTPHEN FROM AURUBIS

Milan, 1st August 2022 – Following up to its press release published on 17th February 2022, Intek Group SpA informs that its subsidiary KME SE (“KME”) has executed on July 29th, 2022 the agreement signed with Aurubis AG (“Aurubis”), after approval by the competent merger control authorities in May 2022, and therefore has completed the purchase of part of Aurubis’ flat rolled products business (“FRP”).

According to the agreement, the FRP plant in Zutphen (Netherlands) as well as the slitting centers in Birmingham (United Kingdom), Dolný Kubín (Slovakia), and Mortara (Italy) with a total turnover of about 280 million and about 360 employees has been transferred to KME SE.

The purchase price paid is € 12 million and includes a € 4 million cash position estimated in the target companies at closing; therefore the transaction Equity Value amounts to € 8 million. KME has also reimbursed at closing a € 63 million intercompany loan to Aurubis, corresponding to an equal amount of net working capital sitting in the target companies at closing.

The transaction is part of KME group's strategy of strong focalization on the main core business of copper and copper alloy rolled products, in order to further develop the existing important manufacturing know-how and product portfolio with the aim to improve the operational efficiencies and to provide the best possible service to the customers.
