PRESS RELEASE

KME SE: ACQUISITION OF SUNDWIGER MESSINGWERK GMBH APPROVED BY GERMAN MERGER CONTROL AUTHORITY

Milan, 3rd December 2024 – KME Group S.p.A. announces that its subsidiary KME SE has obtained the approval by the relevant German merger control authority for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of Blackhawk Holding GmbH, a German managing holding company, owning 100% of Sundwiger Messingwerk GmbH (“Transaction”).

The closing of the Transaction remains subject to approval by the Austrian merger control authority and is expected to occur in the first quarter of 2025.

The Transaction is part of KME group's strategy to strengthen its core business of rolled products in copper and copper alloys, in order to further develop its manufacturing know-how and product portfolio, with the aim of producing operational efficiencies and provide the best possible service to customers.

For further details on the Operation, please refer to the press release of 4 March 2024.
